Meet Jason Kander and Chris Koster:

Jason Kander

Jason Kander began his public service career with the Army in Afghanistan, and later as an instructor with the Missouri Army National Guard's Officer Candidate School. He then went on to serve as State Representative from Jackson County, and most recently as Secretary of State. His accomplishments include passing ethics reform, strengthening Missouri's human trafficking laws, and cutting over a $1 million dollars from his budget while providing more services than any prior Secretary of State.¹

Chris Koster

Chris Koster has served two terms as Missouri's Attorney General. In that role he has argued on behalf of Missouri in front of the Supreme Court, personally convened a statewide task force to overhaul outdated domestic violence laws and implemented critical legal protections for survivors of domestic violence. His office has recouped more than $282 million taxpayer dollars from Medicaid fraud and abuse cases. Additionally, his investigations have protected consumers from predatory business practices, leading to more than $51 million in restitution for victims.²

Public Education Supporters

Both Kander and Koster believe that all public schools should be well-funded, and educators should have the tools they need to provide a high-quality education to every student. Further, they both support increasing educators' pay.³ They both oppose vouchers, and believe that charter schools must be held accountable to parents and taxpayers.⁴ Both support equal pay for equal work,⁵ and raising the minimum wage.⁶

VOTE FOR JASON KANDER FOR U.S. SENATE AND CHRIS KOSTER FOR GOVERNOR ON NOVEMBER 8.
